

Grade Level
Middle School (5-8)		High School (9-12)
Right now, why are you taking Latin? to learn how to translate well	1	to learn vocabulary for the SATs or other standardized tests to learn how to speak Latin	2	to learn how to translate well improve my English language skills	3	improve my English language skills to learn vocabulary for the SATs or other standardized tests	4	to learn about ancient history to learn skills useful for life	5	because I like ancient mythology to learn about ancient history	6	because I like the teacher because I like ancient mythology	7	to learn how to speak Latin to learn how to read Latin without translation	8	to learn how to read Latin without translation to study Latin grammar	9	to learn skills useful for life I can't explain it. Latin is just awesome!	10	to study Latin grammar
There are many things you might do in Latin class. How important to you is each of the following? increasing English vocabulary	1	increasing English vocabulary
standing out on college applications	2	standing out on college applications improving English language skills	3	improving English language skills learning strategies for translation	4	learning strategies for translation preparing to learn another language	5	preparing to learn another language learning to think critically	6	learning to think critically understanding literature more deeply	7	learning world history learning world history	8	understanding literature more deeply learning to recognize patterns	9	learning to recognize patterns learning vocabulary of a Romance language	10	learning vocabulary of a Romance language What topics are you interested in studying in Latin class? mythology	1	mythology
Latin vocabulary	2	English vocabulary English vocabulary	3	Latin vocabulary translation skills	4	Roman games and spectacles (e.g. chariot races, gladiators)
Roman games and spectacles (e.g. chariot races, gladiators)	5	translation skills construction and architecture (e.g. roads, aqueducts, temples)	6	ancient daily life (e.g. Roman clothing, houses, religious practices) vocabulary/skills to help me for a specific job (e.g. lawyer, dr., arch'lgist)	7	construction and architecture (e.g. roads, aqueducts, temples)
ancient daily life (e.g. Roman clothing, houses, religious practices)	8	vocabulary/skills to help me for a specific job (e.g. lawyer, dr., arch'lgist)
Latin grammar	9	history of the Roman Empire (e.g. Augustus, Marcus Aurelius) history of the Roman Empire (e.g. Augustus, Marcus Aurelius)	10	Medieval history

		Sex
Female			Male
Right now, why are you taking Latin? to learn vocabulary for the SATs or other standardized tests	1	to learn how to translate well improve my English language skills	2	to learn vocabulary for the SATs or other standardized tests to learn how to translate well	3	improve my English language skills to learn about ancient history	4	to learn about ancient history because I like ancient mythology	5	because I like ancient mythology to learn how to speak Latin	6	to learn how to speak Latin because I like the teacher	7	because I like the teacher to learn skills useful for life	8	to learn about ancient warfare, military, and battles
to learn how to read Latin without translation	9	to learn how to read Latin without translation to prepare me for a specific job (e.g. lawyer, doctor, archaeologist)	10	to learn skills useful for life There are many things you might do in Latin class. How important to you is each of the following? increasing English vocabulary	1	increasing English vocabulary
improving English language skills	2	improving English language skills
standing out on college applications	3	standing out on college applications
learning to think critically	4	learning to think critically
learning strategies for translation	5	learning strategies for translation learning to recognize patterns	6	learning world history understanding literature more deeply	7	learning to recognize patterns preparing to learn another language	8	learning world history learning world history	9	preparing to learn another language reading a text in its original language	10	reading a text in its original language What topics are you interested in studying in Latin class?
mythology	1	mythology
English vocabulary	2	English vocabulary
Latin vocabulary	3	Latin vocabulary ancient daily life (e.g. Roman clothing, houses, religious practices)	4	military history and battles vocabulary/skills to help me for a specific job (e.g. lawyer, dr., arch'lgist)	5	Roman games and spectacles (e.g. chariot races, gladiators) translation skills	6	construction and architecture (e.g. roads, aqueducts, temples) Roman games and spectacles (e.g. chariot races, gladiators)	7	history of the Roman Empire (e.g. Augustus, Marcus Aurelius) construction and architecture (e.g. roads, aqueducts, temples)	8	translation skills history of the Roman Empire (e.g. Augustus, Marcus Aurelius)	9	history of the Roman Republic (e.g. kings, Punic wars, Julius Caesar)
Latin grammar	10	Medieval history

Years of Study
First Year	Second and Third Year	Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Year
Right now, why are you taking Latin? to learn how to translate well	to learn vocabulary for the SATs or other tests	improve my English language skills to learn how to speak Latin	improve my English language skills	to learn how to translate well to learn vocabulary for the SATs or other tests	to learn how to translate well	to learn about ancient history improve my English language skills	to learn about ancient history	to learn vocabulary for the SATs or other tests to study Latin grammar	because I like ancient mythology	because I like ancient mythology because I like ancient mythology	because I like the teacher	because I like the teacher to learn about ancient history	to learn how to speak Latin	to read ancient literature to learn skills useful for life	to learn skills useful for life	I can't explain it. Latin is just awesome!
to learn how to read Latin without translation	to learn how to read Latin without translation	to learn how to read Latin without translation because I like the teacher	to learn how to read Latin with translation	to learn skills useful for life
There are many things you might do in Latin class. How important to you is each of the following?
increasing English vocabulary	increasing English vocabulary	increasing English vocabulary
improving English language skills	improving English language skills	improving English language skills standing out on college applications	standing out on college applications	learning to think critically learning strategies for translation	learning to think critically	learning strategies for translation learning to think critically	learning strategies for translation	standing out on college applications understanding literature more deeply	learning to recognize patterns	learning to recognize patterns preparing to learn another language	learning world history	learning world history learning to recognize patterns	understanding literature more deeply	understanding literature more deeply learning world history	preparing to learn another language	reading a text in its original language reading a text in its original language	reading a text in its original language	preparing to learn another language
What topics are you interested in studying in Latin class?
Latin vocabulary	mythology	mythology mythology	English vocabulary	English vocabulary English vocabulary	Latin vocabulary	Latin vocabulary translation skills	Roman games and spectacles	ancient daily life vocabulary/skills to help me for a specific job	ancient daily life	Roman games and spectacles Roman games and spectacles	construction and architecture	construction and architecture
Latin grammar	translation skills	translation skills Medieval history	history of the Roman Empire	history of the Roman Empire construction and architecture	vocabulary/skills to help me for a specific job	history of the Roman Republic history of the Roman Empire	Medieval history	Medieval history

School Type
Public	Private	Charter/Magnet	Catholic	Religious (non-Catholic)
Right now, why are you taking Latin? to learn vocab for the SATs	improve my English skills	to learn how to translate well	to learn vocab for the SATs	improve my English skills to learn how to translate well	to learn how to translate well	improve my English skills	improve my English skills	to learn vocab for the SATs improve my English skills	to learn vocab for the SATs	to learn about ancient history	to learn how to translate well	to learn how to translate well to learn about ancient history	to learn about ancient history	I like ancient mythology	I like ancient mythology	because I like the teacher I like ancient mythology	I like ancient mythology	to learn vocab for the SATs	to learn about ancient history	to learn about ancient history to learn how to speak Latin	to learn skills useful for life	to read Latin w/o translation	because I like the teacher	to learn skills useful for life because I like the teacher	to read Latin w/o translation	to read Latin w/ translation	to study Latin grammar	I like ancient mythology to learn skills useful for life	to study Latin grammar	to study Latin grammar	to learn skills useful for life	to read Latin w/o translation to read Latin w/o translation	because I like the teacher	Latin is just awesome!	to learn how to speak Latin	to study Latin grammar to read Latin w/ translation	to learn how to speak Latin	to learn skills useful for life	to read Latin w/o translation	to learn how to speak Latin
There are many things you might do in Latin class. How important to you is each of the following?
increasing English vocabulary	increasing English vocabulary	increasing English vocabulary	increasing English vocabulary	increasing English vocabulary improving English skills	improving English skills	improving English skills	improving English skills	improving English skills standing out on college apps	standing out on college apps	standing out on college apps	standing out on college apps	strategies for translation learning to think critically	learning to think critically	understanding literature	learning to think critically	learning to think critically strategies for translation	strategies for translation	learning to think critically	strategies for translation	standing out on college apps learning to recognize patterns	learning to recognize patterns	strategies for translation	learning to recognize patterns	learning to recognize patterns understanding literature	learning world history	to learn another language	to learn another language	to learn another language learning world history	to learn another language	reading a text in its orig. lang.	learning world history	understanding literature to learn another language	understanding literature	learning to recognize patterns	understanding literature	learning vocab. Romance lang.
reading a text in its orig. lang.	reading a text in its orig. lang.	learning world history	connection btwn US/anc. Rome	learning world history
What topics are you interested in studying in Latin class? mythology	mythology	Mythology	English vocabulary	English vocabulary English vocabulary	English vocabulary	Latin vocabulary	mythology	Latin vocabulary
Latin vocabulary	Latin vocabulary	English vocabulary	Latin vocabulary	mythology Roman games and spectacles	translation skills	translation skills	vocabulary/skills for a spec. job	translation skills translation skills	construction and architecture	Roman games and spectacles	translation skills	vocabulary/skills for a spec. job ancient daily life	Roman games and spectacles	construction and architecture	Roman games and spectacles	Roman games and spectacles construction and architecture	ancient daily life	history of the Roman Empire	construction and architecture	ancient daily life vocabulary/skills for a spec. job	history of the Roman Empire	Medieval history	ancient daily life	construction and architecture history of the Roman Empire	vocabulary/skills for a spec. job	history of the Roman Republic	history of the Roman Empire	Latin grammar Medieval history	history of the Roman Republic	ancient daily life	history of the Roman Republic	history of the Roman Empire

Parental Education Level
Completed College, Some or Completed Grad Study		No formal education, No HS, Some HS, Completed HS, Some College
Right now, why are you taking Latin?
to learn vocabulary for the SATs or other standardized tests	1	to learn vocabulary for the SATs or other standardized tests improve my English language skills	2	to learn how to translate well
to learn how to translate well	3	improve my English language skills
to learn about ancient history	4	to learn about ancient history
because I like ancient mythology	5	because I like ancient mythology because I like the teacher	6	to learn how to speak Latin to learn how to speak Latin	7	because I like the teacher to learn skills useful for life	8	to learn how to read Latin without translation to learn how to read Latin without translation	9	to learn skills useful for life to study Latin grammar	10	to study Latin grammar There are many things you might do in Latin class. How important to you is each of the following?
increasing English vocabulary	1	increasing English vocabulary
improving English language skills	2	improving English language skills
standing out on college applications	3	standing out on college applications
learning to think critically	4	learning to think critically
learning strategies for translation	5	learning strategies for translation
learning to recognize patterns	6	learning to recognize patterns
learning world history	7	understanding literature more deeply
understanding literature more deeply	8	learning world history
preparing to learn another language	9	preparing to learn another language
reading a text in its original language	10	reading a text in its original language What topics are you interested in studying in Latin class?
mythology	1	mythology
English vocabulary	2	English vocabulary
Latin vocabulary	3	Latin vocabulary
Roman games and spectacles (e.g. chariot races, gladiators)	4	Roman games and spectacles (e.g. chariot races, gladiators) translation skills	5	translation skills
construction and architecture (e.g. roads, aqueducts, temples)	6	ancient daily life (e.g. Roman clothing, houses, religious practices)
ancient daily life (e.g. Roman clothing, houses, religious practices)	7	vocabulary/skills to help me for a specific job (e.g. lawyer, dr., arch'lgist) history of the Roman Empire (e.g. Augustus, Marcus Aurelius)	8	construction and architecture (e.g. roads, aqueducts, temples) vocabulary/skills to help me for a specific job (e.g. lawyer, dr., arch'lgist)	9	Medieval history history of the Roman Republic (e.g. kings, Punic wars, Julius Caesar)	10	history of the Roman Empire (e.g. Augustus, Marcus Aurelius)

Requirement to Study Latin
School Requires Latin		School Does Not Require Latin
Right now, why are you taking Latin?
to learn vocabulary for the SATs or other standardized tests	1	to learn vocabulary for the SATs or other standardized tests
to learn how to translate well	2	improve my English language skills because I am required to by my school, parents, or someone else	3	to learn how to translate well improve my English language skills	4	to learn about ancient history to learn about ancient history	5	because I like ancient mythology
to learn how to speak Latin	6	because I like the teacher to study Latin grammar	7	to learn how to speak Latin because I like ancient mythology	8	to learn skills useful for life
to learn skills useful for life	9	to learn how to read Latin without translation to learn how to read Latin with translation	10	I can't explain it. Latin is just awesome!
There are many things you might do in Latin class. How important to you is each of the following?
increasing English vocabulary	1	increasing English vocabulary
improving English language skills	2	improving English language skills
standing out on college applications	3	standing out on college applications
learning to think critically	4	learning to think critically
learning strategies for translation	5	learning strategies for translation preparing to learn another language	6	learning to recognize patterns
understanding literature more deeply	7	learning world history learning to recognize patterns	8	understanding literature more deeply
learning world history	9	preparing to learn another language
reading a text in its original language	10	reading a text in its original language What topics are you interested in studying in Latin class?
mythology	1	mythology
English vocabulary	2	English vocabulary
Latin vocabulary	3	Latin vocabulary
translation skills	4	Roman games and spectacles (e.g. chariot races, gladiators)
Roman games and spectacles (e.g. chariot races, gladiators)	5	translation skills vocabulary/skills to help me for a specific job (e.g. lawyer, dr., arch'lgist)	6	ancient daily life (e.g. Roman clothing, houses, religious practices) construction and architecture (e.g. roads, aqueducts, temples)	7	construction and architecture (e.g. roads, aqueducts, temples) Medieval history	8	vocabulary/skills to help me for a specific job (e.g. lawyer, dr., arch'lgist) ancient daily life (e.g. Roman clothing, houses, religious practices)	9	history of the Roman Empire (e.g. Augustus, Marcus Aurelius) military history and battles	10	Medieval history

Student Interest
Topic: Christian Bible and/or Mass	Topic: Archaeology	Why? To learn how to speak Latin	Why? To learn to read with trans.
Right now, why are you taking Latin? to learn vocab for the SATs	to learn about ancient history	to learn how to speak Latin	to learn how to read Latin w/ trans. improve my English language skills	to learn how to translate well	to learn how to translate well	improve my English language skills to learn how to translate well	because I like ancient mythology	to learn vocab for the SATs	to learn vocab for the SATs to learn about ancient history	improve my English language skills	improve my English language skills	to learn how to read Latin w/o trans.
because I like ancient mythology	to learn vocab for the SATs	to learn about ancient history	to learn about ancient history to learn how to speak Latin	to learn how to speak Latin	because I like ancient mythology	because I like ancient mythology because I like the teacher	because I like the teacher	to learn how to read Latin w/o trans.	to learn how to speak Latin to learn skills useful for life	to learn how to read Latin w/o trans.	because I like the teacher	because I like the teacher to learn how to read Latin w/o trans.	to learn skills useful for life	to learn skills useful for life	to learn skills useful for life to study Latin grammar	to read ancient literature	to learn how to read Latin w/ trans.	to study Latin grammar There are many things you might do in Latin class. How important to you is each of the following?
increasing English vocabulary	increasing English vocabulary	increasing English vocabulary	increasing English vocabulary
improving English language skills	improving English language skills	improving English language skills	improving English language skills standing out on college applications	standing out on college applications	standing out on college applications	standing out on college applications learning to think critically	learning to think critically	learning strategies for translation	learning strategies for translation learning strategies for translation	learning strategies for translation	learning to think critically	learning to think critically understanding literature	learning world history	understanding literature	learning to recognize patterns learning world history	understanding literature	preparing to learn another language	understanding literature learning to recognize patterns	learning to recognize patterns	learning to recognize patterns	preparing to learn another language preparing to learn another language	preparing to learn another language	learning world history	learning world history understanding Christianity	reading a text in its original language	reading a text in its original language	reading a text in its original language What topics are you interested in studying in Latin class?
Christian Bible and/or Mass	archaeology	Latin vocabulary	Latin vocabulary
Early Christian history	mythology	mythology	mythology English vocabulary	Roman games and spectacles	English vocabulary	English vocabulary mythology	construction and architecture	translation skills	translation skills Latin vocabulary	ancient daily life	Roman games and spectacles	Roman games and spectacles Roman games and spectacles	Latin vocabulary	ancient daily life	ancient daily life vocabulary/skills for a specific job	English vocabulary	construction and architecture	history of the Roman Empire translation skills	history of the Roman Empire	vocabulary/skills for a specific job	construction and architecture ancient daily life	history of the Roman Republic	history of the Roman Empire	vocabulary/skills for a specific job history of the Roman Empire	Medieval history	Medieval history	history of the Roman Republic